

GLORY TO HONG KONG

Since March 15, 2019...

- Hong Kong's protests are against the extradition law to mainland China.
- The law undermines judicial independence and endanger dissidents.
- It also violates the "one country, two systems" arrangement and the Sino-British Joint Declaration

Facts

1. More than 10000 protesters are disappeared (including suspicious suicides and secret imprisonment)
2. Countless young women and men are raped and sodomised
3. Millions of protesters marches on the street for more than 1 year.

4. Hong Kong National Security Law was passed illegally

Five demands, no one less

1. Full withdrawal of the extradition bill from the legislative process
2. Retraction of the characterisation of the 12 June 2019 protests as "riots"
3. Release and exoneration of arrested protesters
4. Establishment of an independent commission of inquiry into police behaviour
5. Universal suffrage for the legislative council and the chief executive elections

Key Dates:

February - Hong Kong's Security Bureau John Lee Ka-chiu proposes amendments to extradition laws which would allow extractions to mainland China.

March 31 - Thousands protested against the proposed extradition bill.

June 6 -More than 3000 Hong Kong lawyers dressed in black and protested

June 9 -Around a million protesters took to the street

June 12 -Police fired rubber bullets, bean bag bullets and tear gas in a large scale

June 15- Protester Leung Ling-kit committed suicide with a banner "no extradition to China"

July 21 - Yuen Long white t-shirts gangsters attacked passengers and passersby in Yuen Long station after activists surrounded CCP's representative office.

Aug. 14 -Police and protesters clash at Hong Kong's intentional airport after flights were disrupted.

Sept. 4- Lam announced the extradition bill will be withdrawn. It is too little, too late.

Oct. 4 - Lam invoked anti-mask law

Oct. 23- Extradition bill is withdrawn

Nov. 4- Chow Tsz-lok, 22, fell (might be pushed) from the third to second floor of a parking lot as police dispersed him.

Nov.11-Police fired live rounds at protesters, one person wounded.

November 17-29 -The siege of the Hong Kong Polytechnic University 2020

Jan. 1 - Over a million protesters took to street.

...

June 30- Hong Kong National Security Law

Veritas Vincit